DROP-KICK DECIDES GAME, EACH GETTING TOUCHDOWN

Murphy Makes Telling Boot in Third Period After Hatchetites Score in Opening Quarter and Kendall Greeners in Second.

ALLAUDET bowed to George Washington University yesterday Tafternoon, 9 to 6, in one of the hardest tussles seen on Kendall Greens' gridiron in many a moon. The Kendall Greeners put up strong game and the husky Hatchetites well earned their victory.

George Washington forward passed its way to a touchdown in the first period, Gallaudet tied the count by blocking a kick in the second and Murphy drop-kicked over the deciding points for the Hatchetites in the third quarter.

Johns Hopkins removed another contender from its path in the race for the state collegiate championship when the Black and Blue humbel deare today, 25 to 6. The Homewood ers outclassed the Up-staters at all stages of the battle.

A set of light forwards trying to overgome an abundance of weight and experience really tells the tale of the Hopkins victory. Time after time the Black and Blue backfield men were able to kniff off tackles or to sweep around the ends because of the fact that Magill and Landy and other members of the forward wall were neatly taking the light opposing linemen out of every play and were boxing wings in a deft and effective manner.

Hopkins scored five touchdowns. from which two goals were kickled, and Coady contributed a drop kick.
